

Citizens Project proudly presents the 3rd annual
Citizens' Religious Freedom Institute
Religion and Public Schools

For teachers, students, parents, administrators, staff, school board members, and open to the public

Citizens' Religious Freedom Institute

Saturday, March 10, 2012

Colorado College, Slocum Commons

Featuring Eric Hall,
Partner at Rothgerber,
Johnson & Lyons LLP,
who has defended both sides of religious freedom issues in court.

Three tracks offered:

- Graduate credit (one credit at UCCS) $145 ~ 9am- 5pm
- Teacher in-service (8 contact hours) $25 ~ 9:00 am- 5:00 pm
- General participant $25* ~ 9:00 am – 5:00 pm, all sessions optional

Partial scholarships are available. Please inquire for more information.*

All participants will receive a delicious lunch, a textbook, and supplemental materials

Participants will learn:

- ✓ How the law defines religious freedom in a public school setting
- ✓ Best practices for teaching about religion without endorsing it
- ✓ How to be an advocate to ensure your school protects your rights

Past Participants Say:

- "Very enjoyable, informative day!"
- "I will be more comfortable in fielding religious conversations/comments that kids raise in my class."
- "I became more comfortable with curriculum that involved religious themes."
- "It was all awesome!"

To register or receive more information:
Web: www.citizensproject.org/events

Email: info@citizensproject.org

Phone: 719-520-9899