Media Release

Voting Centers for Recall Open Early Friday and Monday

[Colorado Springs, Colo. – September 5, 2013] Clerk and Recorder Wayne Williams announced that the three busiest Voter Service and Polling Centers will open early, at 7:30 a.m., Friday, September 6, and Monday, September 9, for the Senate District 11 Recall Election.

“We have closely watched the number of voters and are impressed with the enthusiasm of the electorate,” said Wayne Williams. “Our largest number of voters arrived in the morning and many were in line before we opened. To better serve our citizens, we will be open earlier on both Friday and Monday.”

All four of the Clerk and Recorder’s offices are operating as Voter Service and Polling Centers. Voters who live in Senate District 11 can vote at any location 7:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. on Friday and Monday, as well as from 8:00 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturday.

Three additional VSPC sites will be open Monday and Tuesday, September 9 and 10, giving voters a choice of 7 locations where they may vote. Every voter in Senate District 11 is within seven minutes of a VSPC. On the last election day, Tuesday, September 10, all VSPCs will be open 7:00 a.m. -7:00 p.m.
