

Presents:

Religion and Public Schools

A Graduate Course and In-Service Training for Teachers and Administrators offered through the University of Colorado, Colorado Springs

With a track for students, parents and the interested public

Saturday, March 12, 2011

University of Colorado at Colorado Springs
Room TBD

Three tracks offered:

- Graduate credit (one credit) $145 ~ 9am- 5pm, lunch provided
- Teacher in-service (8 credit hours) $25 ~ 9:00 am- 5:00 pm, lunch provided
- General participant $25* ~ 1:00 pm – 5:00 pm, all sessions optional, lunch provided

Partial scholarships are available. Please inquire for more information.*

Participants will learn:

- ✓ How the law defines religious freedom in the public school setting
- ✓ Best practices for teaching about religion without endorsing it
- ✓ How to be an advocate to ensure your school protects your rights

Topics to include: prayer in school, evolution and creationism/intelligent design, equal access, student religious expression, music at school functions, and more.

All participants will receive a textbook and supplemental materials.

To register or receive more information:

Web: www.citizensproject.org/events

Email: info@citizensproject.org

Phone: 719-520-9899

Creating a community valuing diversity, equality, and religious freedom.