

Faithful Conversations

Building Support for LGBTQ People and Allies in Religious Communities

Where:

Park Hill United Methodist Church
5209 E. Montview Blvd.
Denver, CO 80207

When:

Sunday, April 22, 2012
1 p.m. Registration
2-8 p.m. Keynote Speakers, Workshops, Dinner

Registration:

$25, including dinner.
Registration required by April 17 at:
www.one-colorado.org/faith-conference

Presented by:

Co-sponsors:

Keshet
Nehirim

The Gill Foundation provided a generous grant to support this event.

Keynote speakers:

Dr. Kate Ott - Assistant
Professor of Christian Social
Ethics at Drew University
Theological School

Jay Michaelson - Founder of Nehirim and author of the recently-released "God vs. Gay?
The Religious Case for Equality"

A gathering for LGBTQ people of faith, goodwill and allies to build relationships, engage in challenging conversations, enhance and build skills for advocacy, and empower faith communities to support LGBTQ inclusion.